

Proclamation

Whereas, Stevens County's history is long and its roots are deep, and

Whereas, the rich history of Stevens County is a prime source of the positive values and the culture of its citizens, and

Whereas, Stevens County at one time included a vast region of Eastern Washington,

Whereas, the future of Stevens County has been made brighter and stronger because of the past, and

Whereas, First Lady Laura Bush designated Stevens County "A Preserve America Community" in 2008, and

Be it known, that there are many historical organizations and individuals interested in the history of the area and are engaged in history related activities.

Now, therefore, from this date forward the Stevens County Board of County Commissioners joins the Stevens County Historical Society in proclaiming May as

History Month in Stevens County

With this proclamation, we urge all the citizens to become aware of the history of their families, their communities, and their county. They are further urged to recognize and support the history of the area and those who are working diligently to preserve it.

Passed by the Board of Stevens County Commissioners meeting in regular session at Colville, Washington, by the following vote, then signed by its membership and attested to by its Clerk in authorization of such passage the 19th day of April, 2011.
