

BEFORE THE BOARD OF STEVENS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

IN THE MATTER OF THE STEVENS COUNTY CASA PROGRAM	Resolution No. 76-2016 AUTHORIZING THE HOSTING OF AN ANNUAL RECOGNITION EVENT FOR CASA VOLUNTEERS AND ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

WHEREAS, the Board finds the Stevens County Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Program is a child advocacy program utilizing a moderately large pool of volunteers to serve children involved with Superior Court dependency actions; AND

WHEREAS, the Board finds the volunteers and advisory board members are highly trained and valuable assets to the county and to the Superior Court and receive no compensation for their volunteer work; AND

WHEREAS, the Board finds the hosting of an annual recognition event is an important tool to recognize the hard work of these highly trained volunteers, and to serve as one way of attempting to retain the services of these volunteers and advisory board members; AND

WHEREAS, by Resolution #58-2010 a previous Board granted permission for the CASA Program Director to plan and host an annual recognition event for CASA volunteers and advisory board members utilizing funds available within the CASA budget.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of Stevens County, Washington, that permission is granted for this practice to be continued and for the CASA Program Director to plan and host an annual recognition event for CASA volunteers and advisory board members utilizing funds available within the CASA budget. The CASA Director shall be responsible for keeping an accurate record of the expenses and attendance.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Resolution #58-2010 is repealed in its entirety.
